THE LINCOLN FAMILY

March 6, 1919

(Mrs. Mayme Wedmore, Council Bluffs, Iowa.)

Nancy Hanks was the daughter of Joseph Hanks and Nancy Shipley Hanks and was born February 5th, 1784, in Virginia. When she was five years old her parents found a new home in Kentucky, and was about the time that Daniel Boone settled in Kentucky. Several families migrated from Virginia with them.

They traveled by way of the Virginia Valley and through Cumberland Gap, by wilderness roads which led northwest from Cumberland Gap to the Ohio river and settled near where Louisville is now; but Joseph Hanks, Nancy's father, settled near Elizabethtown on an 150-acre farm in what is now Nelson county. He made a cabin of logs and hunted and fished. Joseph Hanks died four years after he settled on this farm and his wife died soon afterwards.

Joseph Hanks had slaves and he willed Nancy one negro woman (Molly). Nancy lost her father when she was nine years old and then went to live with her aunt, Mrs. Richard Berry (her mother's oldest sister), who lived near Springfield, Ky.

Among the friends who visited the Berry home was Thomas Lincoln (the father of Abraham Lincoln). Thomas Lincoln's father was killed by an Indian eight years after he had settled in Kentucky. He left an estate of 1,200 acres. Thomas was nine years old when his father died and he went to live with relatives. The property went to the oldest son (according to custom). Thomas learned the carpenter's trade from a cousin and he frequently saw Nancy Hanks and their friendship terminated into love. Their marriage bonds were made two days before the ceremony, which was the custom of the day.

Thomas Lincoln was considered shiftless and was not handsome, being low, heavy set and coarse featured. Nancy was a pretty blond and weighed 130 pounds. They were properly married June 12, 1806, by Rev. Jesse Head, a Methodist minister of Washington county, Ky.

On account of land frauds, Thomas Lincoln decided to leave Kentucky and go to New Orleans. In 1815 he built a flatboat and loaded it with meats and other articles and his carpenter tools, etc., and went down Froh creek, Salt river and the Ohio river and was aiming to make the Mississippi river but came to disaster on the Ohio because of rough water, snags and rocks.

His brother, Josiah Lincoln, had settled on Big Blue river in Indiana. (Seems that Thomas met with his disaster on the Ohio near his brother's place and therefore went to see him.) Feing pleased with the Indiana land outlook he returned to Kentucky and moved his family to Indiana. His brother helped him make the change, probably at a convenient crossing to their prospective location on Little Pigeon creek in Indiana.

Roads were not plentiful in those days but history states they had a very pleasant journey over a good Kentucky road to the Ohio river, but met with difficulty on the Indiana side because of so much heavy timber and were forced to cut a path through this timber to their new location.

Editor's note.—We are publishing this letter from Mrs. Wedmore because it contains some of the same facts concerning the Lincoln parentage as given by Dr. Warren at Lincoln City on Memorial Day, but the routing through Indiana is in the same vague manner given by most historians. It is the route in Indiana that historians are trying to get clear and the editor believes that Thomas Lincoln, on his first trip, visited the home of Hannaniah ('Niahr) Lincoln on Anderson creek, and when he came with his family crossed at Little Sandy creek and followed the road of the old Indian trail from the mouth of Little Sandy to the home of Reuben Grigsby; and on the next trip with his second wife, crossed at the present Gage Landing (then known as the Posey farm) and cut his own road back to the Troy-Boonville trail, which was also an old Indian trail.

LINCOLN NATIONAL LIFE FOUNDATION,
Fort Wayne, Ind.

My dear Dr. Warren:-

I was so thankful for your letter of the 6th in which you generously offer to be of further assistance in compiling data for my genealogy of the Utterback family.

The following data has been received from both the VETERANS ADMINISTRATION and GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE of the U.S. War Department and you will note the birth, death and some little Family History of Abraham HANKS, the Revolutionary Soldier who enlisted in Bedford Co., Va., and was residing in Lincoln Co., Tenn., on April 16, 1832:-

(1) From the Veterans Administration at Washington, D.C.

"Abraham HANKS was born April 2, 1759, in Amelia County, Virginia. The names of his parents are not known. While residing in Bedford Co., Va., Abraham Hanks volunteered in Aug., 1777, and served 3 months as a private in Captain John Talbot's Company, Col. David Mason's Virginia Regiment; he enlisted Apr. 2, 1779, served in Capt. Helman Rice's Company, Col. Francis Taylor's Virginia Regiment, guarded British prisoners at Albemarle's Barracks and was discharged May 1, 1781.

"After the Revolution, he resided in Campbell Co., Va.; then moved to Lincoln Co., Tenn., where he resided for 18 months when was allowed a pension on his application executed Oct. 16, 1832."

"Abraham HANKS died July 10, 1833, in Lincoln County, Tennessee.

"The soldier married April 15, 1788, in Campbell Co., Va., to Lucy Jennings. In 1840 she was living in Lincoln Co., Tenn., and was then aged 70 years, (thus making her birth year 1770). Children are referred to, but their names are not given. In that year of 1840 one William Pamplin, Sr., aged 78, and resident of Lincoln Co., Tenn., stated that he married Fanny Jennings, sister of the widow, Lucy Jennings HANKS, but no relationship was shown between William, Sr., and William A. Pamplin, Jr., both of whom appeared on an affidavit required by the government to vouch for the widow's claim for pension."

(2) From the General Accounting Office at Washington, D.C.:

"The records of this Office show that Abraham Lincoln, a pensioner, died in Lincoln Co., Tenn., on July 29, 1833, and was survived by his widow, Lucy HANKS. On May 29, 1833, Mrs. Hanks certified that her husband had resided in Lincoln Co., Tenn., for 2 years preceding his death and prior thereto he resided in Campbell Co., Va. The arrears of pension due Abraham Hanks at date of death, covering the period from March 4, 1833, to July 29, 1833, were paid at Nashville, Tenn., on May 7, 1834 to Robt. H. McEwen, as attorney to the widow."

The only conflict in the two reports is that one has the death date as July 10, 1833 and the other as July 29, 1833. I rather think the report of the Veterans Administration Office is CORRECT, i.e., July 10.

If you would wish the original reports will gladly send them.
With well wishes, I am, Sincerely yours,

William S. Utterback.

My dear Mr. Utterback:

I thank you very much for your very complete answer to my question relative to Abraham Hanks who was born April 2, 1759 in Amelia County.

I cannot assist you, however, in telling you the names of the children of this Abraham Hanks.

Yours very truly,

Dr. Louis A. Warren
Editor of Lincoln Lore
Fort Wayne, Indiana

Dear Dr. Warren:

Night before last I had an unexpected pleasure in that Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rl Hanks of Bainbridge, Indiana, visited me. I had never even heard of them before and they had come to Kentucky going into the Eastern part - Campton, Wolfe Co., Ky. to find something of his Ancestors - one George Hanks. No one there knew anything about him and sent him back to me - so I had him tell me his Lineage and when he finished - I had a Will of One "JOHN HARPER" whose daughter, Sibby, married this George Hanks, and in this Will named his Grandson: Stephen Hanks - which had always been a puzzle to me - who this Stephen was - then I checked my Lineage against his and John Harper's daughter, Lydia married Fielding Hanks (who were my three times Great Grandparents - making he and I double 4th cousins.

I am so delighted to find that he had some of the same data which he had gotten from you and which I have unearthed in my rounds in all of these years but I did not have the fact that George was a brother to my Fielding.

I was out when they came and they did not arrive until about 9:30 P.M. so of course since they are gone I am now getting so anxious to know more of this family of one "ABRAHAM HANKS and wife SARAH -----? Can you give me anything about this Abraham and his family - they seemed to have the names of more of the children. I would like to have anything that will help me further this line. I have been trying to get some data establishing this Abraham as my Revolutionary Soldier. There were two Abrahams listed among the Virginia Revolutionary Soldiers and one of them had a wife, Lucy Jennings. I cannot find anything sufficient on the other one with wife Sarah. I do have in my files where Abraham - Fielding and Sibby Hanks were all purchasers of articles sold at the Sale of George Hanks in 1814. So I am quite sure this is our Abraham - but where did he go to?

Is it possible for me to get the Edition of "The Lincoln Kinsman" of April 28, 1930. They had one and this seemed to be a help in getting the family lines. In fact I would like to have any of these pertaining to the Hanks family. Send me the ones most important and send me a bill for same. I have "The Pennsylvania Hanks Family" July 1942.

I would so like to be able to talk with you personally and maybe this next year I can come to Indiana as I want to visit Nancy Hanks' grave. Let me hear from You. I am, Sincerely yours,

Mrs. W. E. Bach

My dear Mrs. Bach:

During my many years in Kentucky I did considerable original work on the Hanks family and have a tremendous collection of records on this family beginning in New England and reaching down through the south.

Through the years we have also had much correspondence with the Hanks' families in different parts of America.

I wish it were possible for you to come to Fort Wayne and spend a few days in our collection of early documents and copies of records relating to the Hanks family.

Under separate cover we are sending copies of the Kinsmen which refer directly to the Hanks family.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Warren:

Your nice letter of October the 21st received also the copies of the Kinsmen which refer to the Hanks family. You did not send bill and did send some copies that I have of same. I found that I had more than one. I wondered if you wanted me to send 25¢ per copy as I note that is the price on same. Thanks anyway but let me know.

I have thought quite a lot of "MY HANKS ANCESTRY" since the young Mr. Hanks of Indiana, came to see me.

Of course I am anxious to get this line complete as possible and get my Revolutionary Ancestor, who I think is "Abraham Hanks" straightened out. Mr. Hanks sent me some data which I imagine he secured from your records and he says, "George Hanks was the sons of Lucy and Abraham" - I do know that there was one Revolutionary Soldier, who drew a Pension - Abraham Hanks who married Lucy Jennings. Now - if his Ancestor: "George Hanks" was a brother to "My Fielding Hanks" which at this point - I dont think there is any doubt about. My Fielding Hanks' death notice which I found in the Kentucky State Historical Society in the Vital Statistics of Wolfe County, Ky., in the year 1860 - This gives the parents of "Fielding Hanks" as Abraham and Sarah Hanks. Also that Fielding Hanks was born in North Carolina. So could this be the same Abraham? And could he have married twice? I didnt think so according to the Pension Statement which I saw in Washington. However I would like to get this straightened out.

I am leaving tomorrow for a few days rest - going back to my old Home at Hazel Green, Wolfe Co., Ky. I will go to Campton, (County Seat) of Wolfe-while there and see if I can find anything at all on this Abraham - but feel quite sure I cannot - as the Wolfe County Records have burned three times-No Marriages there from 1860 to 1913. I may find something in an old deed but rather think not. Anyway I will write you again soon after my return and see what else I might do. There was one Abraham Hanks in Montgomery Co., Ky., also in Clark Co., Ky., at a very early date and I do want to send you this data and see what you think of it but I think I shall return to both counties before I send it and see if I can find anything else. However I know the Montgomery County, Ky. records burned during the Civil War. So I rather doubt finding much there. Anyway I shall try.

How about me sending you all of my data as I can make copies of it and in return you send me things you have which will help me to complete my files? I am going to plan to come to Fort Wayne as soon as possible but maybe not this year. I am,

Sincerely yours, Mrs. W. E. Bach

My dear Mrs. Bach:

I would very much like to see you and have a talk with you about the Hanks family as I am of course continually doing research work in this field. I happened to be in Kentucky, Louisville and Bardstown, last week and spent one entire day in the early records of Nelson County.

Of course I would be happy indeed to see what you have gathered and possibly we might by observing your material help you in your program as well as contribute something to our collection.

I promise I will take very good care of your material and I think I will be able to supplement it considerably.

There is no charge whatever for the pamphlets which I forwarded.

Dear Dr. Warren:

I have been checking my data with Mr. Adin Baber this week and I am so interested in the records he tells me about in your collection which came through Mrs. Hitchcock.

Being a woman - I feel I want to write her and tell her how much I for one, appreciate the things she has done through the years for I know how much time and finance it takes to collect these records. Another thing - is that she is growing old and I think we as Hanks descendants should tell her about it before it is too late. Will you send me her proper address and I will forward a letter to her.

Thanking you for your kindness and hoping I am going to get to make a trip to see you sometime this spring. But before I come I want to get my data all together so it will be easier to check in with yours. I believe I have some things that no one else has at this time.

ABRAHAM HANKS - Migrates to Kentucky in 1775
In Kentucky as late as 1801 with one child 16-21

JOSEPH HANKS * wife Nancy, makes will, and dies in 1793
Children, Thomas, Joshua, William, Charles, Joseph,
Elizabeth, Polly, Nancy.

PETER HANKS - also a Peter Hanks Jr on the same list in 1799
- A William Hanks also in this family

JOHN HANKS - He has a son between the ages of 16-21 in 1799
This son probably Samuel.

ABSCLOM HANKS - In Kentucky in 1799 with one child 16-21
This may have been Abraham but I think not

PITMAN HANKS - Was in Kentucky in 1805 probably much earlier
Had one son between 16-21

ELIJAH HANKS * An Abner Hanks a son or brother (1799)

GEORGE HANKS - Had one son between 16-21 as early as 1792.
Will shows following children:-Milton, Elizabeth,
Jerimiah, Ann, George, Edmund, and Turner.

LUCY HANKS - Married to Henry Sparrow on Apr 3, 1791

LEWIS HANKS * In Ky. as early as 1790, three children 16-21

Notes - I believe any of the above heads of families to have been old enough to be the father of Nancy Hanks, and Lucy Hanks as the above record shows is evidently old enough to be a mother to Nancy.

The Children of Joseph Hanks all who were of age by 1806 with possibly one exception, might also be used in this list of Adults. Their names appear on records in Kentucky with the exception of Charles.
